KILDARE STREET

DUBLIN 2

UNIFYING GEORGIAN ELEGANCE WITH CONTEMPORARY ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Restored and modernised by Kennedy Wilson, the vision was to create office space unifying Georgian elegance with contemporary architectural design to produce the perfect office solution which is unrivalled in the marketplace.

No's 19 & 22 Kildare Street are standalone period office buildings while No. 20A connects via the business lounge to the modern office building to the rear.

All the period buildings have been carefully restored to the highest standards.

BEAUTIFULLY PROPORTIONED OFFICE SPACE WITH PERIOD FEATURES

The Georgian buildings have protected structure status and have been carefully restored with painstaking attention to detail & precision.

20 Kildare Street period facade features fully restored brick and natural stone. The timber entrance doors and fanlight finishings have been repaired to the highest standard.

Washrooms have been added to each of the buildings along with tea stations. It's this effortless connectivity between the old and new architecture that is exceptionally rare to find in the Dublin market.
